

EU Funding Training workshop

19th September 2018

Utrecht, The Netherlands

Background

EU policies are implemented through a wide range of programmes and funds, which provide financial support to hundreds of thousands of beneficiaries, including social, education and health service providers. In the current context of economic crisis and austerity measures, EU funding grants can be an alternative or addition to traditional methods of financing.

For this purpose, and after a very successful training delivered last year by expert Nikolaos Floratos, EPR offers its members another opportunity to enjoy a similar course: 'EU Funding training (outside the ordinary) for exploiting successfully European funding programmes. A crash course on how to create winning grant applications'. The structure of the course has been optimized consistently in order to achieve the highest effect at the least possible duration and ensuring the largest participation.

Learning objectives

1. To think and act like a leader in EU funding.
2. To recognize which proposals will fail and which ones will succeed in EU funding.
3. To identify the most promising EU call topics according to your resources, experience and determination.
4. To understand the full proposal development cycle.
5. To develop great ideas for your proposal in EU calls.
6. To connect with key actors in EU funding area.
7. To receive easily and quickly critical feedback on your EU grant's application.
8. To attract competent partners for your EU grant's application.
9. How to identify highly competent EU funding initiatives and get involved as partner.
10. To impress the evaluators with your grant application form.
