How to get to Mulhouse

From the Airport

At the crossroads of three regions (Alsace, North West Switzerland and Baden-Württemberg-Germany). The EuroAirport connects three big cities Mulhouse, Basel and Freiburg. It is located at 30 km from Mulhouse and different services are in place to reach the city.

Please pay attention to take the exit in the French sector sign posted with French flag otherwise you will find yourself in the Swiss sector and transport will be more expensive!

By Bus + Train

Take the shuttle bus n. 11 to the train station in St. Louis and change onto a train to Mulhouse station.

There are direct trains every 30 minutes. The bus ticket costs € 2.50, the train ticket costs € 6.10. The entire journey is about 30 minutes.

By Taxi

Taxis service is available outside the terminal buildings. This generally charges € 50 during the day and € 60 during the night to the city center. Be aware that some taxis may charge you a bit more, especially if you travel with big luggage. The trip should take an average of 30 minutes to the city center.

The venue

The EPR Annual Conference 2023 will take place in the Centre de Readaptation de Mulhouse (CRM).

The center is a non-profit organization founded in 1946 after the Second World War. CRM is composed of 2 structures:

- A Center for Assessment and Vocational Training with 416 places
- A Functional Rehabilitation Center with 127 beds and places.
